Jubilate

Music by Jeremy Rawson

Introduction

In December 2012, I was approached by Werner Schußler of the Singakademie, Saulheim, to compose a Jubilate, or similar piece, for a concert to be performed in Mainz as part of the Kultursommer Rheinland-Pfalz. I found the idea very exciting, and immediately had some ideas as to how to set the words for the ensemble he had specified – two solo groups and a four-part choir of about 70 singers.

In particular I had the idea of setting not only the usual Latin words, but also to use the German and English words too. Three sets of words and three groups of performers fitted neatly together in my mind! To this, I have added a string quartet to provide some accompaniment and some musical colour to the solo and choral voices.

The music begins with the opening words of Psalm 100 – Jubilate Deo omnis terra / Jauchzet dem Herrn alle Welt / O be joyful in the Lord all ye lands. All the themes in the following music stem from the motifs in this opening section. The four verses are set with one of the groups chanting, church-style, in Latin; the same words in German and English are sung by a second group in a lyrical style, often using canons. The opening “Jubilate” music returns between each verse and at the end.

I would like to record my thanks to my daughter Jane, for checking my setting of the German text and for translating this introduction, and to my wife Helen for her unstinting support and her faith in my ability to compose something worthwhile.

Einführung

In Dezember 2012 ist Werner Schußler von der Singakademie Saulheim an mich herangetreten, um ein Jubilate (oder ähnliches Stück) für den Kultursommer Rheinland-Pfalz zu komponieren. Die Idee begeisterte mich, und sofort hatte ich einige Gedanken, wie ich die Worte für das Ensemble – zwei Gruppen von Solisten und einen vierstimmigen Chor von etwa 70 Sängern – vertonen könnte.

Ich hatte die Idee, nicht nur die übliche lateinische Worte, sondern auch deutsche- und englische Worte zu vertonen. Ich finde, daß drei Wortsätze und drei Musikgruppen ganz besonders gut zusammenpassen! Außerdem fügte ich ein Streichquartett zur Begleitung hinzu um dem ganzen ein bißchen musikalische Farbe zu verleihen.

Die Musik beginnt mit den ersten Worten des Psalmes Nr. 100 – Jubilate Deo omnis terra / Jauchzet dem Herrn alle Welt / O be joyful in the Lord all ye lands. Alle Themen der folgenden Musik leiten sich von den Motiven dieser ersten Partie ab. Jede der vier Strophen wird von einer Gruppe auf Latein wie in der Kirche gesungen; dieselben Worte werden dann auf Deutsch und Englisch von einer zweiten Gruppe im Kanon lyrisch gesungen. Der anfangenden „Jubilate“ kommt zwischen jeder Strophe und auch zum Schluß wieder.

Ich danke meiner Tochter Jane für die Prüfung der deutschen Vertonung und ihre Übersetzung dieser Einführung, meiner Frau Helen für ihre uneingeschränkte Unterstützung und ihren Glaube an meine Fähigkeit, etwas zu komponieren das sich lohnt.
