

Ariadne

Ariadne, our great princess
King Minos depends on you.
And the power that you wield as daughter of the king
Means your wishes will all come true.

Ariadne, our great princess
Has no fear of the Minotaur
She alone has the power to venture in his lair,
She alone does not fear his roar.

See the prisoners come,
Sacrifices all,
Seven sons of Greece
Seven daughters too.

Let them rest awhile
One last night outside.
Then the Labyrinth
Will seal their fate inside.

Ariadne: Who is this who is last in line?
This young man is not like the rest.
I can see he is noble, born of higher blood,
Who are you, with these looks so blessed?

Theseus: My name is Theseus, son of Aegeus,
I've come for I am sure I bring
Power to destroy and overcome
All of the harm this ritual brings
For I will slay the Minotaur
And lay to rest our fathers' war.

Ariadne: Are you sure you can do this thing?
Can you kill the Minotaur?
If you can, I will help you and we'll put a stop
To this souvenir of war.

Theseus: Yes, I am sure, I'm not afraid,
I am determined, I am brave.

Ariadne: Yes, you can, I will help you and as my reward
You will take me back home with you.

Theseus: Power to destroy and overcome
All of the harm this ritual brings
For I'll succeed where others fail
And then to Athens with me you'll sail.

(instrumental)

Ariadne: Take this ball of thread with you
As you enter the Labyrinth.
Unwind the thread to trace the path you take,
To return you can follow its length.
