

Time for Change

Grandly $\text{♩} = 105$

Voice

Piano

mf

Disraeli

The Bri-tish peo-ple are di-

vi - ded, Two na-tions stand a - part, Di - vi - ded by their mu-tual ig - no-rance

And hard-ness of heart. The na-tion must be u - ni-fied, Our du-ty is to

A little faster $\text{♩} = 120$

Reformers

start.

Chil - dren work - ing down the mines, it can't be Women and ol - der chil - dren too Need our pro-streets of all our towns and ci - ties Are un-

mf

right — To a civi - lised na- tion It is a blight.
 tec - tion, To the ma - ny hours they work We have an ob - jec - tion.
 heal - thy, Diseas - es spread to all the poor If not the weal - thy.

Angrily

Objectors

What a - bout our pro - fits? Chil - dren are cheap, Chil - dren are cheap What a - bout our ex - ports? We've dead - lines to meet We've dead - lines to meet What a - bout our tax - es? It's us who will pay It's us who will pay

f

There are plen - ty of them, So we can't weep, So we can't weep.
 If they work so lit - tle, We'll ne - ver com - pete, We'll ne - ver com - pete.
 They will see the bene - fit, At the end of the day, At the end of the day.

First tempo

1. 2. 3. The Disraeli
 The Bri - tish peo - ple are di -

vi - ded, Two na - tions stand a - part, Di - vi - ded by their mu - tual ig - no - rance

And hard - ness of heart. The na - tion must be u - ni - fied, Our du - ty is to

A little faster

Reformers

start. Ma-ny more should have the vote In an e-Ev-'ry Bri - tish child should have An E - du-lec - tion, Bri - tain is Great Bri - tain through their con - tri - bu - tion.

ca - tion, This is the on - ly ba - sis for The great - est na - tion.

Angrily

Objectors

What a-bout my bo-rough? I'm e - lec-ted each time, I'm e - lec-ted each time, What a-bout sta - bili - ty? To teach the poor, To teach the poor

When the poor have their say, We're in de-cline, We're in de-cline.
Leads to re - vo - lu - tion, Of that we are sure, Of that we are sure.

First tempo

4. 5. 1st time: Disraeli 2nd time: All

The Bri - tish peo-ple are di-

vi - ded, Two na-tions stand a - part, Di - vi - ded by their mu-tual ig - no-rance

And hard-ness of heart. The na-tion must be u-ni-fied, Our du-ty is to start.

rall. 2nd time